

LEONARD GROOMING LITTLE BROTHER FOR LIGHTWEIGHT THRONE

CITY'S GOLF LINKS
ALL IMPROVED FOR PLAY TO-MORROW

5,000 Permits Issued Despite
Increased Cost of Public Courses.

By William Abbott.

The public golf links of New York—Van Cortlandt, Moshou and Pelham—will be officially opened to-morrow morning, according to an announcement made this morning by Park Commissioner Hennessey, who has developed into a low-scoring player himself, will drive off the first ball to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock, and from that time until next November, when frost puts a stop to the sport, the thousands of golfers who use the municipal courses will have the right of way over the three links.

It will be cheering news for the great army of public players to know that extensive improvements have been made on the city courses. Under the direction of Commissioner Hennessey, new seedling has been made at every hole and the greens put in tip-top shape.

The increase in dues for permits failed to check the ardor of public-links players. At the present rate 5,000 will hold season permits by May. Daily permits, which were jumped to $1, will certainly establish a new record because of the promised fine condition of the city links and shortage of playing facilities at private clubs around New York.

The increase in dues for the public courses met with considerable opposition from golfers last fall because it was feared the extra revenue would not be devoted exclusively to the betterment of the links. A committee of interested parties called on Comptroller Craig, who expressed his regret at inability of the city to spend the increased revenue only for golf because of the present working of the City Charter.

Under existing arrangements all revenue from park concessions goes into a revolving fund, which is used for general park improvements. Comptroller Craig said he thoroughly enjoyed the Scottish sport himself and would do all in his power to improve conditions for the public players, but he would not devote special funds for golf purposes.

Meeting with scant success downtown, the golf players decided to form a Municipal League comprising the seven clubs that play on the public links during the season. The movement gained quick impetus, and already hundreds have signed membership blanks for the new project, which is expected in a short time will be influential enough to gain special concessions from city authorities.

New York is far behind Chicago and Philadelphia in providing facilities for public golf players. Chicago already has fourteen courses and contemplates building five more.

CONDITIONS NAMED FOR
L. I. GOLF TOURNAMENT.

Conditions for the first championship tournament of the Northern season, the Long Island amateur meeting over the links of the Lido Country Club May 11 to 13, were announced yesterday. The first day will be devoted to both match and medal play, the qualifying round being scheduled for the morning and the first round in the afternoon. This will clear the way for a thirty-six hole final on Saturday afternoon, along with an eighteen-hole handicap.

Coincidental with the testing round on the morning of the first day there will be a team match between clubs, the aggregate of the scores made in the qualifying round of the five previously named representatives of any club to count. The privilege of the course will be extended to all contestants May 8 to 10.

At a recent meeting of the Executive Committee of the Long Island Association it was announced that E. L. Smallish of Lido had presented to the association a handsome trophy emblematic of the amateur championship of Long Island, the conditions providing that the cup shall remain as the permanent property of the Long Island Golf Association. The winner each year shall have his name inscribed on the big cup and will receive a replica. Other suitable prizes will be awarded in the minor divisions.

BALTUSROL GOLFER MAKES
FINAL HOLE IN ONE

The honor of being the first 1922 golfer in the metropolitan district to become eligible to the "Hole-in-One" Club has fallen to the lot of H. W. Spicer of the Baltusrol Club. Playing to the eleventh hole at Baltusrol yesterday, Spicer had the supreme satisfaction of seeing his ball drop on the green and wend its way into the cup. The hole measures 148 yards. Another notable achievement was that of E. M. Wild, who covered the last nine holes in thirty-one strokes, one less than the previous record.

SCOFIELD LEADS FIELD
IN TOURNEY AT PINEHURST

PINEHURST, N. C., April 12.—The strongest field that ever took part in the annual mid-April golf tournament disposed of the qualifying round on the championship course, and was led by R. L. Scofield of Stamford and Pinehurst, who won the medal with a round of 38—48—79 played in a gale of wind. Scofield had a birdie 4 on one hole going out and a 7 on another.

THAT LIGHTWEIGHT TITLE TO STAY IN LEONARD FAMILY
ACCORDING TO BENNY'S PLANS

HERE'S THE NEW LEONARD HOPE
BENNY'S KID BROTHER JOE

Champion After Quietly Developing Brother Joe to Succeed Him,
Announces Youngster Is Now Ready to Knock Out Any Rival
Who Has Covetous Eyes on Honors.

By Joseph Gordon.

NEARLY every branch of sport, with very few exceptions, has offered the novelty of producing a pair of brothers who aspire to greatness in their particular line of activity. That does not necessarily mean that they both shone with an equal lustre, nor that they both enjoy the same popularity, but in many cases the lesser of the two received his share of the glory and earned a reputation bordering on fame.

The instances of where two brothers have made good in the same line of sport are so numerous that it is only necessary to call to mind the case of the Zhyzskos, Stanislaus and Lladok, the Gibbons brothers of St. Paul, Mike and Tom, the Delahentys and Coveleskis of baseball fame, the Cutting and Anderson brothers of tennis and the Callahan boys of 1920, who led the rival Yale and Princeton football teams.

Now along comes Joe Leonard, brother of no less a light-in-the-sporting world than the great Benny Leonard himself, who needs no introduction.

Joe is a lad of nineteen, weighs 132 pounds, stands 5 feet 8 inches in height, has an exceptionally long reach, and a great deal of natural ability. Besides his own natural ability, Joe has had the benefit of daily workouts with Benny since the former was fifteen years old. He has boxed innumerable times with his brother, with Johnny Dundee and many other of America's topnotchers. None of them have ever been able to do much to him and according to reliable information Joe has been a very apt pupil, never failing to derive a reasonable share of benefit from the hard jabs the champions and near champions have handed him.

For more than two years now, Joe has been wanting to get out on his own and seeing what he could do in a real ring battle. But Benny put his veto on Joe's decision, desiring rather to bring him along slowly, teaching him all the finer points of the game and giving him the full benefit of his own long and hard experience of ring tactics. What wouldn't some near champions give to have a painstaking and able instructor like that?

But now the lightweight champion of the world believes that his brother is ready for the test. And if it is born in mind that Benny has determined that Joe succeed him to his crown, the factive world must rest assured that the younger is ready.

It may be modesty or it may be altruism, but Benny insists that his brother will be a greater fighter than he is himself. Mike Gibbons said that of Brother Tom. It is hardly reasonable to believe that at the present time, but there is no denying that the development of Joe will be a most interesting thing to watch.

When Joe starts out on his matting career, like his brother, he will be under the management of Billy Gibson. "The class," as we in sporting circles say of managers. It was Gibson who piloted Benny to the lightweight championship of the world and if the title should remain in the Leonard family after the departure of Benny from the fistic arena, which is not at all an impossible thing, Gibson will still remain the manager of a lightweight champion. Joe is the fourth member of the Leonard clan to follow a fighter's career. Willie and Charlie preceded Benny, but unlike the latter and Joe they lacked those qualities which go to make up a champion. They'd rather play than fight. They didn't take the game seriously.

Practically every day, regardless of weather conditions, circuses in town or parades on the downtown streets, Joe had his workout with his brother or some other topnotcher. He receives much, but he has the satisfaction of knowing that he also relishes a good scrap as both lads are noted for their aggressive fighting.

Former bantamweight champion Pete Herman of New Orleans has started training for his bout with Tommy Ryan of Louisville, Ky., at that place on Derby night, May 12. Should there be a hitch in the Joe Lynch-Johnny Buff fight at the Garden May 2 Herman will be ready to fight the lad who will be able to battle.

Harvey Bright, the young Brooklyn bantamweight, who is studying to be a physician, has been signed up for another contest. He will exchange punches with Kid Sullivan of Brooklyn for twelve rounds at the Broadway Exhibition Association of Brooklyn on Monday night. Joe Gannon meets Billy Metz in the semi-final.

One twelve-round bout, between Jack Reeves of California and Young Bob Fitzsimmons of Nutley, N. J., and two eight-round contests between Sailor Masted of Newark and Joe Thompson, and Andy Thomas and Joe Conn of England, will be fought at the Pioneer Sporting Club on Tuesday night.

Reddy Mason of Pittsburgh, former manager of Harry Greb, is now the manager of Jack Burke of Pittsburgh, who was knocked out in nine rounds by Gene Tunney of New York at the Motor Square Boxing Club of Pittsburgh on Monday night. Tunney drew down $2,500 for putting Burke away. This is Burke's second defeat by Tunney.

Frank Bagley, manager of Champion Gene Tunney, has been offered a flattering guarantee for Tunney to fight Chick Wiggins, the Indianapolis heavyweight, in a ten-round bout at an open air show to be staged on May 20, which is the night before the big automobile race in that city on the following day.

Dave Shadle's next two fights will be with Werner Smith for ten rounds at Oklahoma City on Friday night and with Tilly "Kid" Herman of California for ten rounds at Houston, Tex., on Tuesday night. Shadle is to draw down a guarantee of $2,000 for fighting Smith. He made $4,000 for beating Nate Siegel in Boston a week ago, which makes $6,000 he receives for two bouts.

Up to the present 453 teams have competed, which means that 2,265 bowlers have tried for The Evening World headpin bowling championship and the medals that go with it to the successful men bowling 100 or more. Out of this number 115 pin-toppers have succeeded in getting the required 100 or better, which entitles them to a silver medal.

All the Sport News Is Here

Six Yale Men on This All-Star
Swimming Team.

Yale University's intercollegiate championship team of swimmers has the most representatives on the mythical all-American intercollegiate swimming team picked by Frank J. Sullivan for the intercollegiate Swimming Guide, of which he is editor. Sullivan is also the coach of the Princeton team. Twenty colleges are represented on his list. Yale has six men; Illinois, Minnesota and Northwestern, five each; Pennsylvania, Navy, Wisconsin and Dartmouth, four each; Rutgers and Chicago, three; Brown, Stanford and Columbia, two; and Amherst, California, Army, Princeton, Pittsburgh, Iowa and Johns Hopkins, one each. First and second teams have been picked for the nine events.

French Easter Tennis Entries
Break Record.

PARIS, April 12.—One thousand men and women tennis players have entered for the Easter Championships here. This is the largest entry list on record in France. Among the more prominent entries are Andre Gobert, Max Decugis and M. Bonnot for France, Erik Tenner for Denmark and Signor de Morpurgo for Italy.

Barring of Princeton Stars a Closed Incident.

PRINCETON, N. J., April 12.—There has been surprisingly little interest manifested by the undergraduate body of Princeton University concerning the barring of three prominent athletes and apparently the incident is closed so far as the authorities are concerned.

Australia Names Davis Cup Team.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., April 12 (Associated Press).—The Australian Davis Cup team, consisting of Gerald L. Patterson, J. O. Anderson, O'Hara Wood and J. B. Hawkes, was selected today.

Fistic News BY JOHN
POLLOCK and Gossip

Matchmaker Pawling of the Ice Palace of Philadelphia has arranged his full card of bouts for the boxing show on Thursday evening, April 27. In the main bout George Chaney of Baltimore meets Jimmy Hanlon of Denver. In the other three eight-round contests, Tim Dronney vs. Earl France of California, Shamus O'Brien vs. George "Young Erne" of Buffalo, and Johnny Reiser of New York vs. Kid Wagner of Philadelphia.

Carl Tremaine, the crack bantamweight of Cleveland, is well enough to fight again, and his manager, Jimmy Dunn, has signed him up for two bouts. His first will be with Patsy Seaton of Pittsburgh on Monday night, and his second with Terry Martin of Providence at Toledo April 24.

A match was arranged to-day between Mel Cogan, the fast lightweight of Brooklyn, and Mickey Donley of Newark, N. J. They will come together in a ten-round bout at a decision at the Rink Sporting Club of Brooklyn on Saturday evening, April 22. Jack Bernstein vs. Bert Spencer to ten rounds.

Joe Glick of Williamsburgh, member of the 47th Regiment Armory, meets Young Michaels of East New York in the feature bout of twelve rounds at a show to be held at the 14th Regiment Armory in Brooklyn on Saturday night. Joe Silvers vs. Young Littman for ten rounds.

Frankie Daly, the veteran featherweight of Staten Island, and Patsy Flanagan of the West will clash in the feature go of twelve rounds at the Business Men's Club of St. Louis on the night of April 28. Al take the game seriously.

Freddie Jacks, the English fighter, and Frankie Engel, who hails from Detroit, will come together in a twelve-round decision bout at the Collier City A. C. of Troy, N. Y., on Monday evening, April 24. It should be a good scrap as both lads are noted for their aggressive fighting.

Former bantamweight champion Pete Herman of New Orleans has started training for his bout with Tommy Ryan of Louisville, Ky., at that place on Derby night, May 12. Should there be a hitch in the Joe Lynch-Johnny Buff fight at the Garden May 2 Herman will be ready to fight the lad who will be able to battle.

Harvey Bright, the young Brooklyn bantamweight, who is studying to be a physician, has been signed up for another contest. He will exchange punches with Kid Sullivan of Brooklyn for twelve rounds at the Broadway Exhibition Association of Brooklyn on Monday night. Joe Gannon meets Billy Metz in the semi-final.

One twelve-round bout, between Jack Reeves of California and Young Bob Fitzsimmons of Nutley, N. J., and two eight-round contests between Sailor Masted of Newark and Joe Thompson, and Andy Thomas and Joe Conn of England, will be fought at the Pioneer Sporting Club on Tuesday night.

Reddy Mason of Pittsburgh, former manager of Harry Greb, is now the manager of Jack Burke of Pittsburgh, who was knocked out in nine rounds by Gene Tunney of New York at the Motor Square Boxing Club of Pittsburgh on Monday night. Tunney drew down $2,500 for putting Burke away. This is Burke's second defeat by Tunney.

Frank Bagley, manager of Champion Gene Tunney, has been offered a flattering guarantee for Tunney to fight Chick Wiggins, the Indianapolis heavyweight, in a ten-round bout at an open air show to be staged on May 20, which is the night before the big automobile race in that city on the following day.

Dave Shadle's next two fights will be with Werner Smith for ten rounds at Oklahoma City on Friday night and with Tilly "Kid" Herman of California for ten rounds at Houston, Tex., on Tuesday night. Shadle is to draw down a guarantee of $2,000 for fighting Smith. He made $4,000 for beating Nate Siegel in Boston a week ago, which makes $6,000 he receives for two bouts.

Up to the present 453 teams have competed, which means that 2,265 bowlers have tried for The Evening World headpin bowling championship and the medals that go with it to the successful men bowling 100 or more. Out of this number 115 pin-toppers have succeeded in getting the required 100 or better, which entitles them to a silver medal.

Up to the present 453 teams have competed, which means that 2,265 bowlers have tried for The Evening World headpin bowling championship and the medals that go with it to the successful men bowling 100 or more. Out of this number 115 pin-toppers have succeeded in getting the required 100 or better, which entitles them to a silver medal.

Up to the present 453 teams have competed, which means that 2,265 bowlers have tried for The Evening World headpin bowling championship and the medals that go with it to the successful men bowling 100 or more. Out of this number 115 pin-toppers have succeeded in getting the required 100 or better, which entitles them to a silver medal.

Up to the present 453 teams have competed, which means that 2,265 bowlers have tried for The Evening World headpin bowling championship and the medals that go with it to the successful men bowling 100 or more. Out of this number 115 pin-toppers have succeeded in getting the required 100 or better, which entitles them to a silver medal.

Up to the present 453 teams have competed, which means that 2,265 bowlers have tried for The Evening World headpin bowling championship and the medals that go with it to the successful men bowling 100 or more. Out of this number 115 pin-toppers have succeeded in getting the required 100 or better, which entitles them to a silver medal.

Up to the present 453 teams have competed, which means that 2,265 bowlers have tried for The Evening World headpin bowling championship and the medals that go with it to the successful men bowling 100 or more. Out of this number 115 pin-toppers have succeeded in getting the required 100 or better, which entitles them to a silver medal.

Up to the present 453 teams have competed, which means that 2,265 bowlers have tried for The Evening World headpin bowling championship and the medals that go with it to the successful men bowling 100 or more. Out of this number 115 pin-toppers have succeeded in getting the required 100 or better, which entitles them to a silver medal.

Columbia's Spring Practice Is Postponed.

Spring football practice at Columbia University has been postponed temporarily, awaiting the completion of the dressing rooms on Baker Field. The Athletic Association is having a temporary structure built on the new field which will provide lockers and showers for the gridiron candidates. Work on this structure is progressing rapidly, and it should be ready for use within a short time.

Motor Boat Racing Season Opens
June 24.

Although there will be no race this year for the international trophy, or, as it was formerly called, the Harmsworth Cup, won last year by Miss America II, there will be plenty of racing for motor speed boats, as is shown by the schedule announced yesterday by the American Power Boat Association. The season will open June 24 in New York and New Jersey waters, and close Sept. 5 off Detroit.

Tennis Victory for Miss Martha Hayard.

PINEHURST, N. C., April 12.—Two of America's ranking women players were eliminated yesterday from the North and South tennis championship when Miss Helen Gillicandeau of New York was defeated by Miss Martha Hayard of New Jersey, 6-3, 6-0, and Miss Edith Signourney of Boston lost to Miss Lillian Scherman of New York, 5-6, 6-3, in the round before the semi-finals.

British Lacrosse Team Again
Meets Defeat.

BALTIMORE, April 12.—For the second time within four days, the Oxford-Cambridge lacrosse team met defeat at the hands of American competition when the team of the Mount Washington Club beat them 7 to 2.

DEMPSEY WILL BOX
HARRY GREB ON RETURN.

Before they sailed for Europe, Jack Kearns, manager of Jack Dempsey, said:

"Dempsey will probably return home in time to take on Harry Greb in an eight-round, no-decision affair outdoors in Philadelphia. I am reliably told the public really wants the affair to be brought off, and we would like to see Harry make some money, even if he gets mugged up a bit in doing it, to convince him that the best middleweight isn't heavy enough for the big fellow in the game."

clan, has been signed up for another contest. He will exchange punches with Kid Sullivan of Brooklyn for twelve rounds at the Broadway Exhibition Association of Brooklyn on Monday night. Joe Gannon meets Billy Metz in the semi-final.

One twelve-round bout, between Jack Reeves of California and Young Bob Fitzsimmons of Nutley, N. J., and two eight-round contests between Sailor Masted of Newark and Joe Thompson, and Andy Thomas and Joe Conn of England, will be fought at the Pioneer Sporting Club on Tuesday night.

Reddy Mason of Pittsburgh, former manager of Harry Greb, is now the manager of Jack Burke of Pittsburgh, who was knocked out in nine rounds by Gene Tunney of New York at the Motor Square Boxing Club of Pittsburgh on Monday night. Tunney drew down $2,500 for putting Burke away. This is Burke's second defeat by Tunney.

Frank Bagley, manager of Champion Gene Tunney, has been offered a flattering guarantee for Tunney to fight Chick Wiggins, the Indianapolis heavyweight, in a ten-round bout at an open air show to be staged on May 20, which is the night before the big automobile race in that city on the following day.

Dave Shadle's next two fights will be with Werner Smith for ten rounds at Oklahoma City on Friday night and with Tilly "Kid" Herman of California for ten rounds at Houston, Tex., on Tuesday night. Shadle is to draw down a guarantee of $2,000 for fighting Smith. He made $4,000 for beating Nate Siegel in Boston a week ago, which makes $6,000 he receives for two bouts.

Up to the present 453 teams have competed, which means that 2,265 bowlers have tried for The Evening World headpin bowling championship and the medals that go with it to the successful men bowling 100 or more. Out of this number 115 pin-toppers have succeeded in getting the required 100 or better, which entitles them to a silver medal.

Up to the present 453 teams have competed, which means that 2,265 bowlers have tried for The Evening World headpin bowling championship and the medals that go with it to the successful men bowling 100 or more. Out of this number 115 pin-toppers have succeeded in getting the required 100 or better, which entitles them to a silver medal.

Up to the present 453 teams have competed, which means that 2,265 bowlers have tried for The Evening World headpin bowling championship and the medals that go with it to the successful men bowling 100 or more. Out of this number 115 pin-toppers have succeeded in getting the required 100 or better, which entitles them to a silver medal.

Up to the present 453 teams have competed, which means that 2,265 bowlers have tried for The Evening World headpin bowling championship and the medals that go with it to the successful men bowling 100 or more. Out of this number 115 pin-toppers have succeeded in getting the required 100 or better, which entitles them to a silver medal.

Up to the present 453 teams have competed, which means that 2,265 bowlers have tried for The Evening World headpin bowling championship and the medals that go with it to the successful men bowling 100 or more. Out of this number 115 pin-toppers have succeeded in getting the required 100 or better, which entitles them to a silver medal.

Up to the present 453 teams have competed, which means that 2,265 bowlers have tried for The Evening World headpin bowling championship and the medals that go with it to the successful men bowling 100 or more. Out of this number 115 pin-toppers have succeeded in getting the required 100 or better, which entitles them to a silver medal.

Up to the present 453 teams have competed, which means that 2,265 bowlers have tried for The Evening World headpin bowling championship and the medals that go with it to the successful men bowling 100 or more. Out of this number 115 pin-toppers have succeeded in getting the required 100 or better, which entitles them to a silver medal.

Up to the present 453 teams have competed, which means that 2,265 bowlers have tried for The Evening World headpin bowling championship and the medals that go with it to the successful men bowling 100 or more. Out of this number 115 pin-toppers have succeeded in getting the required 100 or better, which entitles them to a silver medal.

Up to the present 453 teams have competed, which means that 2,265 bowlers have tried for The Evening World headpin bowling championship and the medals that go with it to the successful men bowling 100 or more. Out of this number 115 pin-toppers have succeeded in getting the required 100 or better, which entitles them to a silver medal.

Up to the present 453 teams have competed, which means that 2,265 bowlers have tried for The Evening World headpin bowling championship and the medals that go with it to the successful men bowling 100 or more. Out of this number 115 pin-toppers have succeeded in getting the required 100 or better, which entitles them to a silver medal.

Up to the present 453 teams have competed, which means that 2,265 bowlers have tried for The Evening World headpin bowling championship and the medals that go with it to the successful men bowling 100 or more. Out of this number 115 pin-toppers have succeeded in getting the required 100 or better, which entitles them to a silver medal.

Up to the present 453 teams have competed, which means that 2,265 bowlers have tried for The Evening World headpin bowling championship and the medals that go with it to the successful men bowling 100 or more. Out of this number 115 pin-toppers have succeeded in getting the required 100 or better, which entitles them to a silver medal.

Up to the present 453 teams have competed, which means that 2,265 bowlers have tried for The Evening World headpin bowling championship and the medals that go with it to the successful men bowling 100 or more. Out of this number 115 pin-toppers have succeeded in getting the required 100 or better, which entitles them to a silver medal.

TO-NIGHT'S SCHEDULE
IN HEADPIN TOURNEY

Clover, Clover, N. J. 2
Original Nut. 2
Maspeith Post, A. L. No. 753. 2
Co. 1, 307th Inf. Ass'n. 2
Corrigan 1
Evergreen, Corona 2
Krauschneider 2
Wild Cat. 2

Jimmy Amato Beats Mike Paulson
in Hub City.

BOSTON, Mass., April 12.—Jimmy Amato of New York won his tenth straight contest last night when he defeated Mike Paulson of St. Paul at the Boston Arena. The contest went the limit of ten rounds, and Amato's flashy left jabs and hooks were too much for the St. Paul man. In the seventh round Paulson was dropped to the mat with a short right hook to the jaw, but gamely refused to take a count and fought back with great courage.

Sharkey Gets Decision Over Nable
at Pioneer.
Jack Sharkey of the West Side received the judges' decision over Sam Nable, the former amateur, in their twelve-round bout at the Pioneer Sporting Club last night.

TO THE PUBLIC:—
SAMUEL BLUM—Well Known Manufacturer of "Rochester Art Clothes"RETIRING
FROM BUSINESS

Offering Direct to the Public in Our Manufacturing Loft and Five Temporary
Retail Stores. (See Addresses Below)

$350,000 SPRING STOCK
MEN'S AND YOUNG MEN'SROCHESTER CLOTHES
Tailored in New YorkFor Less Than To-Day's Wholesale Manufacturing Cost!

When we announced our retirement last September we tried to cancel our orders for woollens ordered by us a year ago when we were doing a manufacturing business of about three million dollars a year. Some were cancelled, but others could not be cancelled because they were in work on the looms. We had no other course but to accept them. We did and made them up into the latest models and now must dispose of them regardless of loss.

2,500 Men's and Young Men's SUITS AND Topcoats

The smartest one, two, three and four-button models for men and young men—all the latest effects from the dash-and-go to conservatives; also loose and form-fitting coats as well as semi-conservative and conservative models. Sizes up to 48.

Suits and Topcoats Worth up to 50.00 22.50
Suits and Topcoats Worth up to 65.00 27.50

Closing Up Three Stores

On May 1st we will give up our temporary stores at 1652 B'way, at 50 Delancey St., at 724 8th Ave. We must therefore dispose of our stocks at great sacrifices

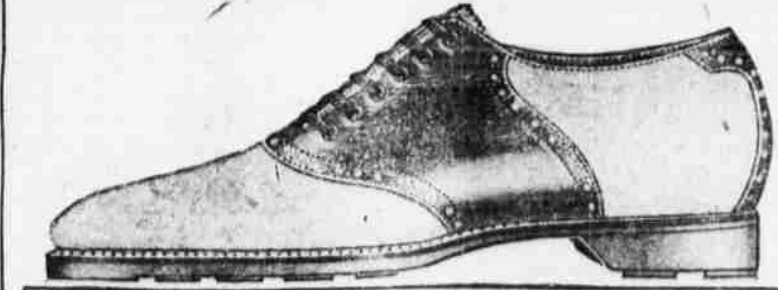

Samuel Blum
WHOLESALE CLOTHING MANUFACTURER

740 BROADWAY—CORNER ASTOR PLACE
Manufacturing Headquarters
Take Elevator to 6th Floor

* 1652 BROADWAY Cor. 51st Street
* 50 DELANCEY STREET Corner Eldridge Street

* 724 EIGHTH AVENUE Corner 45th Street
Sold also at CONCORD CLOTHING CO. 125 Canal St., Cor. Chrystie.

Stores marked (*) OPEN EVENINGS

Number 3305
Men's Sport-Oxford

Rakish lines, "different" design, and flexibility classify this number as the popular footwear for the outdoor season.

Made of Smoked Elk, with Russian tan apron and black stay. Rubber suction sole.

SIGNET MEN'S SHOPS

14th St., at No. 6 East.
36th St., at 1345 B'way.
42nd St., at 137 West.

125th St., at 112 West.
149th St., at Third Ave.
150th St., at Third Ave.
Brooklyn, at 557 Fulton
Headquarters for Educator Shoes